studies various constructions of memory in contemporary spanish literature evoking different aspects of a past of repression from both the civil war and the franco regime this book analyzes narrative texts published between the 1960s and 1990s that present memory and the recuperation of a traumatic past as their main theme not only do drama and poetry about the past and historical novels reveal a shared understanding of pivotal moments historical figures and every life of earlier times say middleton english u of southampton and woods english u of wales aberystwyth they also outline more general beliefs about the past and its relation to the present it is as we are approaching our fin de sielce issues of time and memory haunt contemporary culture musuems and memorials are being constructed rapidly as if there were no tomorrow contemporary art and literature focuses on memory and the past rather than claiming radical breakthroughs into some unknown future with the recent resurgence of nationalism and issues of national identity the political future too seems to fold itself back into the past rather than offering a bold vision of the 21st century the great paradox of our fin de siecle culture is that novelity is even more associated with memory and the past rather than future expectation but if the obsession with memory is one salient symptom in this age of a modernity grown old then cultural and political amnesia is undoubtedly its counterpoint rather than blaming amnesia on television or the school twilight memories argues that the danger of amnesia is inherent in the information revolution our obsessions withcultural memory can be read as re representing a powerful reaction against the electronic archive and they mark a shift in the way we live structures of temporality in this book the media are the hidden veil through which the author looks at the problem of cultural memory and an emerging new sensibility of temporality in literature art politics media theory and the museum the puppet show of memory by maurice baring first published in 1922 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world this book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation restoration editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work we believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it
